Featuring: Our Four Year Old Preschoolers!

This months newsletter will be featuring our four year old preschool classroom! The children and teachers have been busy exploring our different summer themes.

From “Under the Sea” to “It’s a Jungle in Here”, The children have been learning about all different types of animals and the habitats in which they live. Through story telling, art projects, sensory play, science experiments, math activities and dramatic play, the children are fully immersed in the curriculum and are not only learning, but having fun!

Here are two of their AWESOME bulletin boards showcasing all of their hard work!

This summer has been so much fun! But, the school year is right around the corner and we are ready to get back into the swing of things. Our academic school year curriculum will begin after labor day. Check “Upcoming Events” for more preschool dates coming up!

From Dave...

Historically, the Gingerbread House closes for Columbus Day, October 10, 2016, to hold a bi-annual staff development day. During our two training days we cover as many of the state mandated topics as possible. These include child abuse and maltreatment recognition, curriculum planning and much more. This year our center is a polling site for the general election. Whether you are voting for Hillary or Trump, you can do it at our location if you live in the area!! We have decided to close the building on November 8th, 2016 for staff development and open the center on October 10, 2016 in exchange. We hope this does not cause for any hardships.

Enjoy the rest of your summer, snow will be falling soon.....
