

The Gingerbread House Weekly Curriculum

Date: 5/21– 5/25

Theme: In the Garden: Flowers and Plants

Classroom: Lollipops

Objective: Children will experience the process of planting flowers & discover different types of flowers & plants

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Language & Literature	Read: The Tiny Seed , by Eric Carle How many flowers can we name?	Read: Planting a Rainbow Sing: “The Green grass Grows All Around”	Read: Jack and the Bean Stalk What are your favorite veggies?	Read: Down in the Dirt Chalkboard name center	Read: The Little Red hen What are your favorite fruits?
Art & Fine Motor	Painting with flowers	Cutting and stringing flower chandelier	Paint fireflies in jars	Frog jump paintings	Beet prints
Science, Technology, Engineering & Mathematics	Plant flower seeds The life cycle of plants	Bean Dissection Sorting seeds by size, shape, and color	Carrot top experiment Start potato plant	Seed tangrams & mosaics	Colored celery Experiment Plant peas
Sensory	Dirt bin Build garden	Dirt bin Build garden	Dirt bin Build garden	Dirt bin Build garden	Dirt bin Build garden
Religion & Social Studies	What are the different types of plants around the world? (different climates)	What types of plants grow in the desert?	What types of plants grow in the mountain & forest?	What types of plants grow in the plains & grasslands?	What types of plants grow near the oceans, lakes, & marshes?
Gross Motor	Gymnastics	Picking flowers	Gymnastics	Leap frog	Gardening